

Jazzhead2006 highlights an amazing cross section of jazz talent on the Australian scene. Taking snippets from Jazzhead's year of releases and combining with favourites from the past, Jazzhead2006 delivers an incredible listening experience.

Kicking off with a Latin theme, 2006 introduces new Jazzhead signing BBR. This trio features Barney McAll, who signed his entire back catalogue of solo work to the label in '05. Also featured are works from McAll's Mother Of Dreams And Secrets (Ellegua) and Release The Day (Thirty Three).

Having just finished a national tour, The Ben Winkelman Trio continue to win new audiences with their driving energy and melodies, here they perform Bananeiro from their debut album, Stomps Pieces & Variations.

The Rob Burke track Choro Negro was taken from his fabulous release of '05, The Edge Of Today, which features five of Australia's leading guitarists plus his stunning trio.

Misinterprotato and Peter Knight continue to amaze. Touring solidly in 2006 – Misinterprotato in Japan, and Knight in USA and Canada – and together for a one off appearance in Japan to celebrate the cultural exchange between the two countries.

Bell Award winner Alison Wedding, the first lady of Jazzhead, performs This Fear showing her unique style and delivers the infectious melody underpinned by the musicianship of her quartet.

After 10 years of releasing quality music, Jazzhead is still as excited by the sounds as ever. This, the fourth in our annual series, maintains the label's distinctive sound and offers a variety of accessible and appealing tracks. A great taster of excellent music from Jazzhead.
