Jazzhead is proud to announce two exceptional releases, No Conditions and No Exceptions from outstanding pianist Sam Kevers and his Nonet.

Kevers brought together this stellar line-up to record an album over two nights at Bennetts Lane. With two hours of their greatest moments down, the sessions became two albums, No Conditions and No Exceptions.

Keever's compositions consistently explore elements of Latin-jazz and this is apparent in the title track on No Conditions, with the solid pulse of the 'ostinato' which allows the (Cuban) 'Cascara' to build and emerge. This dynamic energy continues throughout the album with its unique rhythm and timing.

No Exceptions, maintaining that energy, opens with a Cha Cha Cha in 7/4 time. That unmistakable rhythm, relaying a certain flamboyance and freshness carries through the recording from the Latin rhythms to the more contemporary pieces. The live atmosphere enhances their vibrant performance.

No Conditions and No Exceptions are both, out now on Jazzhead.
